

Participant Agreement Form

Dear Participant,

We are glad you have chosen to take this year's Design Course. We will do our best to make this an informative, educational experience these next six days.

The Camino De Paz has generously allowed the use of their campus/farm.

Traditional Native American Farmers Association would like to stress we are all guests of Camino De Paz, school, farm, home, please respect all wishes of Camino De Paz staff. The Traditional Native American Farmers Association and Camino De Paz are not responsible for any accidents or injuries during your attendance of this course. All participants must have health insurance in case of an emergency or accident.

The campus of Camino De Paz is a drug and alcohol free zone. There is to be no illegal drugs or alcohol in any amounts allowed on the campus / farm of Camino De Paz. Nor will anyone be permitted on the premises under the influence of illegal drugs or alcohol. If anyone is caught with or under the influence, they will be turned over to the proper authority, and be expelled from the remainder of the course and registration fees will not be reimbursed. Additionally during any site visits and field trips the host community, institution, home or other facility is not responsible for any accident or injury to student, the student is fully responsible for accident or injury.

I _____ agree with all the terms stated above, and will give respect to the farm, campus, home of Camino De Paz and the Traditional Native American Farmers Association.
